

LYNN ELLERBEE

As an intern with Bambo Sonaike CPA LLC, Lynn is gaining a well-rounded valuable experience within the audit, tax and consulting field. Currently a senior at Kennesaw State University, Lynn plans to graduate Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting by December of 2009.

Lynn began her college career after receiving a dual diploma with distinction from McEachern High School in 2005. While in high school, she was a member of the French club, the Beta club, and the school's orchestra. Her main accomplishments from this period included graduating high school with honors and attending numerous competitions with the school's orchestra.

Since her first semester at Kennesaw State University, Lynn has been on the President's and the Dean's list. She hopes that her commitment to studies will be beneficial in the future when she goes for her Masters in Accounting degree. Lynn also plans to become a Certified Public Accountant.

With her hard work and dedication, Lynn plans to become more involved with more educational and community based organizations.

In her spare time, Lynn plays the violin for her church orchestra and occasionally also for weddings. She enjoys spending time with friends and family, outdoor activities, and traveling.
